SUBJECT: PUBLIC RELEASE OF OFFENDER INFORMATION

6. Any in-state or out-of-state orders of protection or no-contact orders known to ACC.
7. All major disciplinary violations and the date of their disposition that occurred while the offender was incarcerated.
8. Any programs completed and their dates while under ACC supervision.
9. A list of previous revocation offenses while on probation or parole and date of revocation.
10. Any court-generated records posted will be electronic copies of the actual court documents. If included in the documents, victim information must be redacted prior to posting on the public website.

The ACC Director must develop a plan to establish a method for a victim of a crime committed by a probationer, parolee or other person under ACC supervision to easily obtain the above information.

- E. Information from an offender record in addition to paragraphs B, C and D above may be released to criminal justice agencies and other governmental authorities unless state or federal law prohibits such disclosure.
- F. Information contained in offender records in addition to paragraphs B, C and D above may be released to appropriate personnel for research and audit purposes.
- G. Information contained in offender records in addition to paragraphs B, C and D above may be released to appropriate personnel involved in the operation of a contracted or licensed correctional facility or program.
- H. Access to an offender's own record may be granted, or information from the record may be released to the offender and/or his attorney as needed to resolve legitimate questions about the accuracy of information in the record or as required by rules of discovery in pending litigation. The names of confidential informants and other sensitive or confidential information, the disclosure of which might cause harm to any person, must NOT be disclosed except pursuant to court order.

SUBJECT: PUBLIC RELEASE OF OFFENDER INFORMATION

- I. An offender must not be permitted to peruse his/her file at will. The request for access to the file or information contained therein must be made in writing to the Center Supervisor or Area Manager or his/her designee. The offender must state with particularity the information or parts of the file to which access is requested; and the offender's request must be supported by a showing of compelling need. The decision of the Center Supervisor or Area Manager or his/her designee to grant or deny the offender's request is final.
- J. An offender must not be given access to another offender's record or any information contained therein.
- K. Staff trained in the supervision, management and/or treatment of offenders may provide information pertaining to a particular offender to that offender as part of the offender's supervision, management and/or treatment. For example, the offender's supervision conditions and supervision plan are information commonly provided to the offender.
